

English Insights

At Mortimer, our English curriculum is focused on students' personal development and building confidence by developing a critical voice. The curriculum explores how:

1. good writers plan, practice and improve their work.
2. the purpose of/audience for a text should inform its content.
3. different genres/forms have different conventions/features.
4. writers make deliberate choices to create particular effects.
5. writers use structure as well as language to create precise effects and create meaning.
6. context affects the content of a text.
7. understanding context can aid analysis of a text.
8. much of a text's meaning may be below the surface.
9. different readers have different perspectives.
10. texts are part of a continuum and are linked to, and reference, each other.
11. effective communication takes a range of forms-written; dramatic, oral- and all are valuable.
12. the study of English allows us to learn more about ourselves, others and the world around us.
