

Brainstorm the main themes and issues in 'I love you Mum, I promise I won't die'

Mental health

Consequences of taking illegal drugs

Making one mistake

The impact of grief on family and friends

Brainstorm the main themes and
issues in 'I love you Mum, I
promise I won't die'

Peer pressure

Attending illegal raves

THINK AND LINK

What is Verbatim Theatre?

How was this used in 'I love you Mum'?

THINK AND LINK

What is Verbatim Theatre?

A documentary styled theatre that uses the real words of those involved to create the script dialogue.

How was this used in 'I love you Mum'?

The play is based upon a true story. The family and friends of Daniel Spargo-Mabbs were interviewed regarding their recollection of events on the night of Dan's death. These were painstakingly transcribed into the dialogue for the play by practitioner, Mark Wheeler.

Explain how each image relates to the play 'I love you Mum'

Explain how each image relates to the play 'I love you Mum'

Verbatim theatre. The interviews were recorded and the true spoken words from those interviews were used to create the script.

Based upon a true story regarding Daniel Spargo-Mabbs who attended an illegal rave and took illegal drugs, leading to his death.

Dan's parents originally came up with the idea, along with his Drama teacher, to use his story as an educational platform to help others.

Mark Wheeler was the practitioner who influenced this performance. He helped create the idea, recorded the interviews with family and Oasis Youth Theatre were the cast to perform this play. They were chosen by Mark Wheeler. He decided